

FINE AND PERFORMING ARTS MINOR

The Fine and Performing Arts minor provides an opportunity for students to cultivate their interests in the arts. Students who are interested in developing skills in an interdisciplinary manner have an opportunity to explore all of the arts programs the college has to offer with the ability to present their particular and unique focus in the arts including creative writing, theater and music performances, as well as fine arts skills. This is a performance-based minor, meaning that in each of the courses offered the student is involved in the creation and performance of art. Students must complete one course in at least three of the four performance areas: creative writing, music, theater, and art and complete a total of 21 credits for the minor.
