

COMMUNICATION ARTS MINOR

The Communication Arts minor is designed to help students develop effective communication skills, one of the most sought-after skills in today's workforce. Through focused coursework, students will develop these skills across a wide range of social and professional contexts, making this minor the perfect complement to any course of study. This minor also offers valuable opportunities for students to gain experience through internships and co-curricular activities.

Program Requirements

Code	Title	Credits
Take all of the following:
COMM-201	INTRODUCTION TO MASS COMMUNICATION	3.00
COMM-204	PUBLIC SPEAKING	3.00
COMM-320	PERSUASION	3.00
Take one of the following:		3.00
HUM-101	THE ART AND HISTORY OF THE MOTION PICTURE
COMM-375	CREATING DIGITAL MEDIA
Program Electives
Select 9 additional credits of COMM of which 6 credits must be 300 or above (COMM 300/400)		9.00
Total Credits		21.00