Student Development Curriculum

The Vice President for Student Affairs serves as the official Chair of the Student Development curriculum, which includes co-curricular classes (e.g., student government internships) and student success classes including Introduction to College Studies, New Student Orientation, and the courses provided by TRiO Student Support Services.

Institutional Development Grant

Each spring semester, faculty and staff may apply for grant monies to assist student groups with special projects and/or travel. A portion of student fees is allocated to the category of Institutional Development and is used to augment selected educational activities. These funds are to be used solely to enhance the educational experience of students enrolled in any Lewis-Clark State College program and are awarded through an internal competitive grant application process. For more information www.lcsc.edu/institutional-development-grant. (<http://www.lcsc.edu/institutional-development-grant>)

New Student Orientation

New Student Orientation is a required program for all new, degree-seeking students. Students can earn one college credit by registering for SD-107 - New Student Orientation (or SD-307 for transfer students), attending the program, completing related activities. At New Student Orientation, students are provided with information about key campus services. Students are also introduced to faculty members who teach in their intended major. Family and friends are treated to special sessions in which they are advised about creating a strong personal support system with and for the new students. For more information www.lcsc.edu/orientation (<http://www.lcsc.edu/orientation>).

The Moss Family Fund

The Moss Family Fund is designated in honor of the late Oma and Van L. Moss. Mrs. Moss was employed by the college for twenty-three years and Mr. Moss was a former faculty member. The Moss Fund program is for students with an emergency/crisis. The temporary loan is always for $50 with a time limit for repayment of one month. When requesting a loan, the student will sign a repayment agreement. As long as the student is in compliance with repayment he/she may receive a new loan. Loan request forms must be approved by the Vice President for Student Affairs or his/her designee. Loans are available to current degree-seeking students only.

The Rose Ann Hopkins Trust

The Rose Ann Hopkins Trust of Lewiston, Idaho, the Lewis-Clark State College Foundation, and Lewis-Clark State College have established a fund in support of student loans/scholarships. This fund is used to fund educational loans and scholarships in the name of the Settlor, Rose Ann Perott Hopkins, class of 1935. Loans are available for up to $250 with a time limit for repayment of one month. Loan request forms must be approved by the Vice President for Student Affairs or his/her designee. Loans are available to current degree-seeking students only.

Discrimination

Students have the right to be free from unlawful discrimination in College programs and activities. Affirmative Action policies designed to eliminate discriminatory practices have been instituted. The College will not exclude any person from participating in its programs or activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, veteran status, or disability. Incidents of discrimination committed by one LCSC student toward another fall under the purview of the Student Code of Conduct (Vice President for Student Affairs). Incidents which involve discrimination of a student by a member of the College staff fall under the jurisdiction of the Campus Affirmative Action Officer (Human Resource Services).

Sexual Harassment/Title IX

"Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX), 20 U.S.C. §§ 1681 et seq., and its implementing regulations, 34 C.F.R. Part 106, prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs or activities operated by recipients of federal financial assistance. Sexual harassment of students, which includes acts of sexual violence, is a form of sex discrimination prohibited by Title IX." (Source: U.S. Department of Education Office of Civil Rights, Dear Colleague Letter, April 4, 2011). Acts of sexual discrimination, sexual harassment, and sexual violence represent violations of the LCSC Code of Conduct even when they occur off campus. For more information www.lcsc.edu/title-ix (<http://www.lcsc.edu/title-ix>) or inquiries concerning Title IX may be directed to the Title IX Coordinator:

Students who believe they are victims of sexual misconduct are encouraged to report same to any campus official immediately. Similarly, students who believe they have witnessed or otherwise know of a case of sexual misconduct should report it to a campus official. Specifically, students may file such reports to:

Reports may be filed confidentially. Students filing complaints requesting anonymity will be apprised of the potential limitations of the student judicial process when such requests are granted and, the granting of those requests may not be guaranteed if the safety of the campus community is deemed at risk.

If school officials know or reasonably should know about possible sexual harassment or sexual violence, a report must be filed. A prompt investigation will occur even if an alleged victim or victim's advocate (parent, faculty member, etc.), requests that no action on the part of the institution be taken.

Complainants in such cases will be apprised of the estimated timeframe in which investigation procedures and student disciplinary proceedings will occur. Generally, from the time a report is received until a final decision has been rendered (e.g., sanctions have been imposed), the process may take up to 60 calendar days (this does not include appeals). Circumstances surrounding an individual case may require the process to take longer.

Racial Harassment

Students have the right to be free from unlawful racial harassment on College property and off College property during a College related activity. LCSC will not tolerate racial harassment. Incidents of alleged racial harassment committed by one LCSC student toward another fall under the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct (Vice President for Student Affairs). Incidents which allegedly involve racial harassment of a student by a member of the College staff fall under the jurisdiction of the Campus Affirmative Action Officer (Human Resources). See definition of "Harassment" under Student Code of Conduct www.lcsc.edu/student-affairs/student-code-of-conduct/misc-offenses/ (<http://www.lcsc.edu/student-affairs/student-code-of-conduct/misc-offenses/>) or www.lcsc.edu/student-affairs/student-rights-and-responsibilities/. (<http://www.lcsc.edu/student-affairs/student-rights-and-responsibilities/>)

Academic Affairs

Students have the responsibility for selecting a major field of study, for choosing an appropriate degree program within the discipline, for planning class schedules, and ultimately for meeting the requirements for his/her degree. The College will provide advisors to assist students in academic planning, but students are responsible for obtaining copies of appropriate academic bulletins and being thoroughly familiar with all academic requirements which must be met for a degree. Students also have the responsibility to take advantage of the educational opportunities presented by the College, to participate in the learning process in a serious and conscientious manner, and to respect the rights of other members of the College community.

Students have the right to have College classes conducted under the following provisions:

1. Faculty will clearly state course outcomes/goals, assignments/testing, and grading which should be in alignment with the course intention (or purpose) and academic level.
2. Faculty will plan and regulate class time with an awareness of its value for every student.
3. Faculty will be available to students and will announce and maintain regular office hours.
4. Faculty will model respect for each student as an individual, regardless of race, sex, national origin, religion, age, disability, or veteran status.
5. Faculty will strive to generate respect and understanding for academic freedom by students.
6. Faculty will strive to create an environment in which students may raise relevant issues, doubts, or alternative opinions during classroom discussion without concern for academic sanctions.
7. Faculty will be sensitive to students personal or political beliefs expressed in a private manner in connection with course-work.
8. Faculty will protect student information, such as grades and class standing in accordance with FERPA.

Student Rights and Responsibilities

Students have the right to a clear statement of their basic rights, responsibilities and Student Code of Conduct. They have the right to assist in formulating College policy by representation on various College committees. Students also have the right to be represented by a student government. Other student rights and responsibilities outside the classroom include, or for more information www.lcsc.edu/student-affairs/student-rights-and-responsibilities/ (<http://www.lcsc.edu/student-affairs/student-rights-and-responsibilities/>):

1. Students may form, join, and participate in groups which promote the common intellectual, religious, social, economic, political, recreational or cultural life of campus. The College believes group activities to be a positive educational vehicle and recognizes the right of student groups to discuss, express opinions, to assemble, write, and publish within state and federal constitutional guarantees and laws.
2. A student group may be authorized to use College facilities if its officers and a majority of its members are currently enrolled at LCSC.
3. Students and student groups are free to engage in peaceful and orderly protests and demonstrations which do not disrupt functions of the College, subject to reasonable assumptions concerning time, place, and manner. In all cases the educational purpose and process of the College must not be disrupted by protests and demonstrations.
4. Students who publish student publications under College auspices have the right to be free from unlawful censorship. However, students who publish such documents must observe the recognized canons of responsible journalism, including the avoidance of libel, indecency, undocumented allegations, attacks on personal integrity, and the techniques of harassment and innuendo. Student editors and managers may not be removed because of general faculty, administrative, student or public disapproval. They may be suspended or removed from their positions for proper cause by the committee responsible for their appointment.

5. Students who publish student publications which are not sponsored or financially supported by the College may distribute the publications to students on College property subject to reasonable assumptions concerning time, place, and manner of distribution.
6. Students have the right to access educational records maintained by the College. The students may review their own records and challenge the accuracy of the records. Educational records are maintained on a confidential basis. Only those College employees with a legitimate need to know have access to student educational records.

Student Right-To-Know

The Student Right to Know Act requires institutions receiving Title IV funding disclose certain information, including institutional graduation rates, athlete graduation rates, financial assistance awarded and crime statistics. Specific guidelines exist as to the method and timing for reporting and disclosure to potential students, current students and employees. Institutions are required to provide enrolled students a list of the information to which the students are entitled upon request. The Higher Education Act (HEA) specifically requires that institutions provide the list annually to all enrolled students. The data can be accessed from the Consumer Information web page www.lcsc.edu/consumer-information (<http://www.lcsc.edu/consumer-information>).

Drug-Free Schools and Campuses Act

In order to comply with the Drug-Free Schools and Campuses Regulations, an institution of higher education must certify that it has adopted and implemented a program "to prevent the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol by students and employees" both on the institution's premises and as part of any of its activities (Complying with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments, Chapter 1, 1989). The data can be accessed from the Consumer Information web page - www.lcsc.edu/consumer-information (<http://www.lcsc.edu/consumer-information>).

Function and Jurisdiction: The Student Hearing Board (hereinafter "Hearing Board") shall provide the original formal hearing in student discipline matters in all cases when a student is dissatisfied with the report and recommendation of the Vice President for Student Affairs and requests a hearing.

Structure and Organization

The Hearing Board contains the same faculty appointees as the Faculty Hearing Board. The Hearing Board shall be composed of seven (7) members (the majority of whom shall be tenured): three (3) members from the faculty elected by the Faculty Association; three (3) members from the faculty appointed by the President; and one (1) division chair appointed by the Faculty Senate. Three (3) alternate members will be designated: one (1) appointed by the President; and two (2) appointed by the Faculty Senate. The chair shall be elected each year from the members of the Hearing Board. In cases involving students, four (4) students shall be included, with voice and vote, in the Hearing Board membership except in cases of sexual misconduct. The students shall be appointed by the Student Body President. A quorum shall consist of a simple majority of the members of the Hearing Board so long as two (2) student members are present. The decision of the Hearing Board shall be made by a majority of those members who have attended the hearing.

Term of Office

Faculty members are to serve for two (2) College years, one-half (1/2) of those members with as nearly as one-half (1/2) of the faculty members being selected each year. Student members shall serve for one (1) year, but may be reappointed for a second year.

Hearing Officer

Either the President or the Hearing Board may determine to appoint a Hearing Officer to preside at any hearing held by the Hearing Board. The Hearing Officer may or may not be an attorney at law but must be experienced in conducting hearings. He/she shall act in an impartial manner as the presiding officer at the hearing. If requested by the Hearing Board, the Hearing Officer may participate in its deliberations and act as its legal advisor but shall not be entitled to vote.

College President

The President shall review and determine appeals from the decisions of the Hearing Board. The President has the authority to uphold, modify or overrule those decisions, or to return the matter to the Hearing Board for further consideration. A party may appeal the President's decision to the State Board of Education when, if and in such manner as the State Board of Education determines that such appeal shall be heard. See State Board of Education Policy at www.boardofed.idaho.gov/ (<http://www.boardofed.idaho.gov/>) section 18 Student Complaints/Grievances.

Investigation of Violation and Recommendation by Vice President for Student Affairs

The Vice President for Student Affairs or a designee approved by the Vice President shall receive all student judicial complaints and shall investigate all complaints against students alleged to have violated the Student Code of Conduct. The investigation should include, if possible, an interview with the student where the student is told of the alleged violation and given an opportunity to deny or explain it. The investigator shall make an initial determination of whether the violation occurred, shall place the burden upon the party seeking judicial action to prove that the charges against the student are more likely to be true than not true, and, if so, shall make his/her recommendation of the sanction or educational remedy to be imposed. If the investigator determines that a violation of the Student Code of Conduct has occurred, he/she shall write a report identifying the alleged violation, set forth his/her determination and recommendation of the sanction to be imposed. If the report of the investigator is adverse to the student (the report finds that the student committed a violation and recommends any sanction) for one of the following reasons:

1. a material error in procedure,
2. new evidence relevant to the student's case surfaced, or
3. the student believes the sanction was disproportionate to the violation, the affected student may request a hearing before the student Hearing Board by delivering a written request for a hearing to the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs within seven (7) calendar days after the date on which he or she is served with a copy of the investigator's report. Victims in cases of sexual misconduct may also request an appeal under same circumstances and conditions.

Hearing Before the Student Hearing Board

If the student makes a written request for a hearing before the Student Hearing Board upon the report of the investigator for Student Services within seven (7) days after he/she is served with a copy of the investigator's report, the student shall be entitled to a hearing before the Student Hearing Board. If the student fails to make a timely written request for a hearing, the report and recommendation for sanctions made by the Vice President shall become a final decision and the student shall have no further rights of hearing or appeal under this Student Code of Conduct.

The following provisions shall be applicable to hearings before the Hearing Board:

1. The student charged with the violation:
  - a. shall be entitled to a prompt hearing
  - b. shall be informed in writing of the specific charges and the proposed judicial action be given sufficient time to prepare for the hearing.
2. During the judicial hearing, the student charged with the violation:
  - a. shall be given the opportunity to testify and present evidence and witnesses on his or her behalf
  - b. shall have the opportunity to hear and question adverse witnesses
  - c. shall have all testimony or evidence introduced in his or her presence unless he or she refuses to appear or fails to appear after having received proper notice, and
  - d. shall not be forced to testify against himself/herself and his/her refusal to testify shall not be considered as evidence against him or her.
3. The Hearing Board:
  - a. shall place the burden upon the party seeking judicial action to prove that the charges against the student are more probably true than not true and that the recommended sanction is reasonable
  - b. shall base its findings and decisions exclusively upon proper evidence and testimony presented at the hearing and upon facts that are universally regarded as true (the Hearing Board should hear evidence of any disputed points - however, the Board may itself take notice of facts that everyone agrees are true - for example, evidence does not have to be introduced to show it was dark if the act in question is clearly shown to have occurred in an unlighted area at midnight), but the Hearing Board shall not be bound by the strict rules of evidence followed in courts of law
  - c. must state its findings and its decision in writing.
4. The student shall not have the right to be represented by an attorney before the Hearing Board except:
  - a. that when the party seeking the disciplinary action will be represented at the hearing by an attorney he/she shall give written notice to the student of such representation and the student shall then have the right to be represented by an attorney at his/her own expense
  - b. where the charges against the student are, or are likely to be, the subject of a separate criminal action against the student, the student may be accompanied to the hearing by an attorney and shall have the right to consult with the attorney throughout the hearing, but the attorney shall not be entitled to present evidence, question witnesses, make arguments or otherwise participate in the hearing. When not accompanied by or represented by an attorney, the student may be accompanied by a non-lawyer advisor of his/her choice.
5. In cases involving accusations of sexual assault, acquaintance rape, or rape, the rights of the alleged victim will be respected. The alleged victim may be accompanied to the hearing by an individual of his/her choosing. The alleged victim will have the right to restrict any discussion of his/her previous sexual history. The alleged victim will also have the right to make a victim impact statement to the Hearing Board concerning physical and/or mental and/or emotional effects caused by the alleged incident.

6. A record of testimony presented at the hearing will be made using a tape recorder or stenographic court reporter. A copy of that record shall be made available to the student upon payment of the reasonable cost of that copy.
7. The hearing before the Hearing Board shall be open to the public if both parties make a written request for an open hearing and deliver it to the Vice President for Student Affairs before the day of the hearing. If parties to the complaint do not agree on an open hearing or both prefer a closed hearing, the hearing will not be open to the public. If neither party requests an open hearing before the day of the event, the hearing will not be open to the public.
8. A copy of the written decision of the Hearing Board shall be served upon the student and the Vice President for Student Affairs. The Hearing Board may affirm, reverse or modify the decision of the Vice President for Student Affairs or the sanction assessed but shall not increase the sanction imposed by the Vice President. A notice accompanying the decision shall advise each party that if either party is dissatisfied with the decision of the Hearing Board, that party may request a review of that decision by the President by delivering a request for such a review to the office of the President within seven (7) calendar days after the date the party receives the Hearing Board's decision and the notice. That notice shall advise each party that the decision of the Hearing Board shall become final unless a timely written request for review is made by either party. The failure of a party to make a timely written request for review shall constitute a waiver of that party's right to any further review of the decision of the Hearing Board and that decision shall become final.

Review By College President

Within seven (7) days after requesting review, the party seeking review shall submit to the President a written statement setting forth, the reasons why that party believes the decision of the Hearing Board is incorrect. The other party shall have seven (7) days to respond in writing to that statement. Review of the decision of the Hearing Board shall then be conducted in such manner as the President shall determine and may or may not include the right to present oral argument to the President. The President may affirm, reverse, or modify the decision of the Hearing Board or the sanction assessed, provided that the President shall not increase the sanctions beyond that which was recommended by the Vice President for Student Affairs in the first instance. The President may also remand the case to the Hearing Board for further hearing upon such issues as the President may designate. The President's decision shall be in writing and shall be served on the interested parties. If no written appeal is submitted within seven (7) days to the President the case is considered closed, and the decision by the Vice President for Student Affairs will be upheld.

A party may appeal the President's decision to the State Board of Education when, if and in such manner as the State Board of Education determines that such appeal shall be heard. See State Board of Education Policy III.P, Section 18 (www.boardofed.idaho.gov (<http://www.boardofed.idaho.gov>)).

The following policies are designed for the general well-being of all members of the College community. Violations of the Student Code of Conduct may result in remedial action against the student violator and in sanctions being imposed as hereinafter provided. The Student Code of Conduct is also in effect off-campus when students are in attendance at a function sponsored by the College, Associated Student Body or other college-affiliated groups, if the offense constitutes a violation of Title IX, or if students are otherwise participating in a college sponsored activity including sporting events and home stay. These could include dances, social events, club activities, athletic events, educational pursuits, internships, trips, or other College related experiences. The Student Code of Conduct also applies to students in non-credit educational programs and courses.

The Student Code of Conduct may also be applied to off-campus student behavior even when such behavior does not occur at or with a college-affiliated function, activity or group and does not constitute a violation of Title IX when the administration determines in its discretion that the off-campus conduct affects a substantial school/university interest. A substantial school/university interest is defined to include:

1. Any action that could constitute a criminal offense as defined by federal or state law. This includes, but is not limited to, allegations of single or repeat violations of any local, state or federal law in the municipality where the school/university is located;
2. Any situation where it appears that the student may present a danger or threat to the health or safety of him/herself or others;
3. Any situation that significantly disrupts the rights, property or achievements of self or others or significantly breaches the peace and/or causes social disorder.*

*Adapted from Penn State University/ATIXA

Updates to the Student Code of Conduct are posted on the Vice President for Student Affairs website (<http://www.lcsc.edu/student-affairs/student-code-of-conduct/>).

Academic Dishonesty

Cheating or plagiarism in any form is unacceptable. The College functions to promote the cognitive and psychosocial development of all students. Therefore, all work submitted by a student must represent his/her own ideas, concepts and current understanding.

Academic Dishonesty includes:

1. Cheating - intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise. The term "academic exercise" includes all forms of work submitted for credit hours.
2. Fabrication - intentional and/or unauthorized falsification or invention of any information or the source of any information in an academic exercise.
3. Collusion - facilitating academic dishonesty intentionally or knowingly helping or attempting to help another to commit an act of Academic Dishonesty.

4. Plagiarism - the deliberate adoption or reproduction of ideas or words or statement of another person as one's own without acknowledgment.

The sanctions imposed for a violation of this section of the Code are independent of, and in addition to, any adverse academic evaluation which results from the student's conduct. The course instructor is responsible for academic evaluation of a student's work and shall make that evaluation without regard to any disciplinary action which may, or may not, be taken against a student under the Student Code of Conduct.

Alcoholic Beverages

1. Illegal possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages (beer, wine, liquor or other beverages- which are controlled as an alcoholic beverage under Idaho law) is prohibited in College or College-owned, leased or operated facilities and on campus grounds.
2. Alcoholic beverages may not be possessed or consumed under any circumstances in areas open to, and most commonly used by, the general public. Public areas include, but are not limited to, lounges, College Union buildings, recreation rooms, conference rooms, athletic facilities and other public areas of College owned buildings or grounds.
3. Sale of alcoholic beverages is prohibited in College-owned, leased or operated facilities and on campus grounds.
4. Guests and visitors shall observe these regulations while on campus or other College property. Noncompliance may subject a person to sanctions imposed by the College as well as to the provisions of local and state law. (Adopted by the State Board of Education, December 1, 1977).
5. For LCSC sponsored events which are open to the campus community and at which alcohol will be present, the sponsor will work with the Dean of Student Services or the appropriate academic or vocational Dean to assure adherence to this policy. The following information will need to be provided to assure adherence.
  - a. Names and ages of individuals designated as bartenders or servers to check identification.
  - b. Means to inform participants of applicable state and federal laws regarding alcohol consumption.
  - c. Nonalcoholic beverages and food consumption
  - d. Designated driver program
6. No social event shall include any form of drinking contest in its activities or promotion. The Idaho law states that it is illegal to sell, serve or furnish beer, wine or other alcoholic beverages or intoxicating liquor to a person under 21 years of age. It is illegal for any person under 21 years of age to purchase or attempt to purchase, procure, possess, or consume any alcoholic or intoxicating liquor.

There are a number of minors attending LCSC and as a state institution, the College is legally obligated to comply with the state law.

Non-Smoking Policy and Building Access

By Executive Order Number 92-2 of the Governor of Idaho, smoking tobacco or similar substances is not allowed inside any College-owned or operated building. To provide building access which is smoke-free, while still accommodating those who elect to smoke, the campus has established designated smoking areas on the outer parking lots of the campus. Smoking within the campus grounds, around or in buildings, or anyplace other than a designated smoking area is considered a violation of the Student Code of Conduct. A map of the designated smoking areas may be found at the following web site: <http://www.lcsc.edu/media/1559505/Campus-Map.pdf>.

Drugs

Possession, manufacture, distribution, use or sale of marijuana, drug narcotics or other controlled substances classified as illegal under Idaho law, except those taken under a doctor's prescription is prohibited on College-owned or controlled property (as that term is herein and hereafter used, College-owned or controlled property includes student housing owned by or rented through the College), or at any College-sponsored or supervised function (See campus policy on Alcohol and Drug abuse, and rules on sanctions for alcohol and drug abuse, and rules on sanctions for alcohol and drug abuse; <http://www.lcsc.edu/student-counseling/substance-abuse-assistance/alcoholdrug-information/>).

Falsification of College Records

The willful falsification of official record or documents or the submission of records or documents to the College with knowledge of their falsity is prohibited. Falsification of records or documents includes, but is not limited to, the forging or alteration of, or the knowing use of false or inaccurate registration documents, documents submitted in support of residency determinations, transcripts, fee receipts, identification cards, meal tickets, parking decals, financial aid forms, telephone billing cards, and ASLCSC forms or documents.

Campus SAVE Act and Clery Act

Lewis-Clark State College prohibits domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. Educational programs are offered yearly that promotes the awareness of these actions as well as rape and acquaintance rape, the prevention of; how to report and safe and positive options for bystander intervention.

Domestic/Dating Abuse and Violence

A form of harassment which may include the use of physical, sexual, verbal, emotional, or technological abuse, or similar behaviors intended to control a partner, by a person to harm, threaten, intimidate, or control another person in a relationship of a romantic or intimate nature, regardless of whether that relationship is continuing or has concluded or the number of interactions between the individuals involved.

Domestic violence is a crime under Idaho Code § 18-918 (2002).

Domestic Violence is defined (in Idaho Code § 39-6303) as “the physical injury, sexual abuse or forced imprisonment or threat thereof of a family or household member, or of a minor child by a person with whom the minor child has had or is having a dating relationship, or of an adult by a person with whom the adult has had or is having a dating relationship” (2002).

Sexual Misconduct and Hostile Environment

1. Sexual Harassment

Sexual Harassment can include unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, including sexual assault. Sexual harassment, including sexual assault, can involve persons of the same or opposite sex. Consistent with the law, this policy prohibits two types of sexual harassment:

1. Tangible Employment or Education Action

- a. This type of sexual harassment occurs when the terms or conditions of employment, educational benefits, academic grades or opportunities, living environment or participation in a College activity is conditioned upon, either explicitly or implicitly, submission to or rejection of unwelcome sexual advances or requests for sexual favors, or such submission or rejection is a factor in decisions affecting that individual's employment, education, living environment, or participation in a College program or activity. Generally, perpetrators will be agents or employees with some authority from the College.

2. Hostile Environment

- a. Hostile Environment based on race, color, religion, national origin, creed, service in the uniformed services, veteran status, sex, age, political ideas, marital or family status, pregnancy, physical or mental disability, genetic information, gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation exists when harassment:
  - i Is sufficiently serious (i.e., severe, pervasive, or persistent) and objectively offensive so as to deny or limit a person's ability to participate in or benefit from the College's programs, services, opportunities, or activities ; or
  - ii When such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's employment.

Harassment that creates a hostile environment violates this policy.

A hostile environment can be created by anyone involved in a College program or activity (e.g., administrators, faculty members, students, and even campus guests). Mere offensiveness is not enough to create a hostile environment. Although repeated incidents increase the likelihood that harassment has created a hostile environment, a serious incident, such as a sexual assault, even if isolated, can be sufficient.

In determining whether harassment has created a hostile environment, consideration will be made not only as to whether the conduct was unwelcome to the person who feels harassed, but also whether a reasonable person in a similar situation would have perceived the conduct as objectively offensive.

2. Sexual Misconduct includes sexual assault, inducing incapacitation for sexual purposes, sexual exploitation, and relationship violence.

3. Sexual Assault means an actual or attempted sexual contact with another person without that person's consent. Sexual assault includes, but is not limited to:

1. Involvement in any sexual contact when the victim is unable to consent.
2. Intentional and unwelcome touching of, or coercing, forcing, or attempting to coerce or force another to touch a person's intimate parts (defined as genital area, groin, inner thigh, buttocks, or breast).
3. Sexual intercourse without consent, including acts commonly referred to as “rape.”
  - a. Consent is informed, freely given, and mutual. If coercion, intimidation, threats, or physical force are used there is no consent. If a person is mentally or physically incapacitated or impaired so that such person cannot understand the fact, nature or extent of the sexual situation, there is no consent; this includes impairment or incapacitation due to alcohol or drug consumption, or being asleep or unconscious. There is no consent when there is force, expressed or implied, or use of duress or deception upon the victim. Silence does not necessarily constitute consent. Past consent to sexual activities does not imply ongoing future consent. Whether an individual has taken advantage of a position of influence over an alleged victim may be a factor in determining consent.

Title IX

"Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX), 20 U.S.C. §§ 1681 et seq., and its implementing regulations, 34 C.F.R. Part 106, prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs or activities operated by recipients of federal financial assistance. Sexual harassment of students, which includes acts of sexual violence, is a form of sex discrimination prohibited by Title IX." (Source: U.S. Department of Education Office of Civil Rights, Dear Colleague Letter, April 4, 2011). Acts of sexual discrimination, sexual harassment, and sexual violence represent violations of the LCSC Code of Conduct even when they occur off campus. Inquiries concerning Title IX may be directed to the Title IX Coordinator:

Title IX Coordinator
Administration Building, Room 16A
208-792-2553
titleix@lcsc.edu

Students who believe they are victims of sexual misconduct are encouraged to report same to any campus official immediately. Similarly, students who believe they have witnessed or otherwise know of a case of sexual misconduct should report it to a campus official. Specifically, students may file such reports to:

Reid Centennial Hall, Room 112
208-792-2218
studentaffairs@lcsc.edu

Director of Campus Security

Reports may be filed confidentially. Students filing complaints requesting anonymity will be apprised of the potential limitations of the student judicial process when such requests are granted and, the granting of those requests may not be guaranteed if the safety of the campus community is deemed at risk.

If school officials know or reasonably should know about possible sexual harassment or sexual violence, a report must be filed. A prompt investigation will occur even if an alleged victim or victim's advocate (parent, faculty member, etc.), requests that no action on the part of the institution be taken.

Complainants in such cases will be apprised of the estimated timeframe in which investigation procedures and student disciplinary proceedings will occur. Generally, from the time a report is received until a final decision has been rendered (e.g., sanctions have been imposed), the process may take up to 60 calendar days (this does not include appeals). Circumstances surrounding an individual case may require the process to take longer.

If a member of the campus community believes that the college has not complied with the provisions of Title IX, he/she may file a complaint by contacting the Office of Civil Rights at 1-800-421-3481 or <http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/howto.html>.

Harassment/Bullying

Any practice by a group or an individual that detains a member of the College community against his or her will without cause or authority to do so, endangers his/her health, jeopardizes his/her safety, or interferes with class attendance or the pursuit of education or work responsibilities and which occurs on College-owned or controlled property or while the violator is attending or participating in a College-sponsored event or activity is prohibited. Use of College Internet addresses or College technology to harass/bully is also prohibited on and off campus. Furthermore, the Idaho Criminal Code has designated malicious harassment as a serious act punishable by the State. LCSC supports Idaho authorities and will not tolerate harassment in any form.

Idaho Criminal Code: 18-7902 Harassment

Stalking and Trespassing

It shall be unlawful for any person, maliciously and with the specific intent to intimidate or harass another person because of that person's race, color, religion, ancestry or national origin to:

1. cause physical injury to another person; or
2. damage, destroy, or deface any real or personal property of another person; or
3. threaten, by word or act, to do the acts prohibited; if there is reasonable cause to believe that any of the acts described in 1 or 2 above.

For purposes of this section, "deface" shall include, but not be limited to cross-burnings or the placing of any word or symbol commonly associated with racial, religious or ethnic terrorism on the property of another person without his or her permission.

Idaho Criminal Code: 18-7903. Penalties

2. In addition to the criminal penalty provided in subsection (a) of this section, there is hereby created a civil cause for action for malicious harassment. A person may be liable to a victim of malicious harassment for both special and general damages, including but not limited to damages for emotional distress, reasonable attorney fees and costs, and punitive damages.
3. The penalties provided in this section for malicious harassment do not preclude victims from seeking any other remedies, criminal or civil, otherwise available under law.

Stalking

Stalking is prohibited on campus and by state law. Stalking is repeatedly contacting another person when the contacting individual(s) knows, or should know, that the contact is unwanted by another person, and the contact causes the other person reasonable apprehension of imminent physical harm or substantial impairment of the other person's ability to perform the activities of daily life and obtaining an education. "Contacting" includes, but is not limited to, communicating with or remaining in the physical presence of the other person. It also includes "cyberstalking," which is the use of technology including personal computers, telephones, and social media.

Lewd or Indecent Conduct

Lewd or indecent conduct, as prohibited by city and/or state laws and ordinances which occurred on College-owned or controlled property or while the violator is attending or participating in a College-sponsored event or activity, is prohibited.

Disruption of the Classroom

Disruption of the classroom is prohibited. Each faculty member controls the direction of education in the classroom setting. The educational atmosphere is the heart and purpose of higher education. Students have the obligation to respect the educational rights of others as they seek to maximize their learning. Faculty have the right to utilize whatever methods they deem appropriate to ensure the quality of the educational atmosphere. This includes, but is not limited to, requesting an investigation of disruptive classroom behavior under the Student Code of Conduct.

Disobeying or Deceiving College Officials

Students must obey the reasonable requests of College officials including but not limited to security officers, residence hall administrators and residence hall assistants in the performance of their duties. ### Firearms and Dangerous Weapons

Possession of firearms on college-owned or college-controlled property, except as expressly authorized by Idaho Code, section 18-3309(2), State Board of Education Policy V.L., and LCSC Policy 4.123, is prohibited. The college will provide safe storage of firearms for students who live in housing managed by the college or other students upon request.

Possession of illegal weapons, explosives, chemical, or incendiary devices, except as expressly authorized by law or institutional policy, is prohibited on college-owned or college-controlled property.

Students in violation of this provision of the student code will be subject to college-based disciplinary action and, depending upon the nature of the infraction, may be referred to local law enforcement.

Group Offenses

Living organizations, clubs and similarly organized groups are responsible for compliance with College regulations. Upon satisfactory proof that a group encourages, or did not take satisfactory steps to prevent violations of College regulations, that group may be subject to permanent or temporary suspension, loss of recognition or charter, social probation, or other action.

National City/State Laws

8. Failure to comply with the sanction(s) imposed under the Student Code.
9. Influencing or attempting to influence another person to commit an abuse of the judicial system.

Dual Credit Students

Acts of Academic Dishonesty are subject to appropriate discipline through the student's high school, with the exception of those students taking Dual Credit courses on-campus or online. Title IX, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs or activities operated by recipients of federal financial assistance (including sexual harassment and sexual violence), applies to all LCSC students and Dual Credit students, wherever they are taking classes. In Title IX-related cases, college officials will coordinate investigative and adjudication processes with high school officials. Other provisions of the LCSC Student Code of Conduct apply to Dual Credit Students but disciplinary action may be coordinated with the student's high school.

Sanctions

Sanctions which may be recommended or imposed for a violation are listed here in order of their severity:

1. Warning;
2. Probation (with terms and length as determined by the person or Board levying the sanction);

5. Expulsion (indefinite removal from college) which may include being banned from campus property. Any request for re-enrollment must be submitted in writing to the Admission Committee in care of the Vice President for Student Affairs.

5. Administrative fees not exceeding fifty dollars ($50)

When appropriate, a student may be given the option of working off the equivalent of the fines and restitution for the College at the minimum wage. Until fines or restitution have been paid, the College may deny a student the privilege of reregistering, may hold transcripts and/or diplomas, and may refuse to release information based on the student's records.

In situations involving violations of City of Lewiston, State of Idaho, or Federal law, violence, or threats the police may be informed of the occurrence.

Sanctions affecting a student's residence in College-controlled housing may be imposed. These sanctions are loss of privileges within the living group and temporary or permanent removal from College-controlled housing. Students may be banned from further visitation.

Sanctions already imposed by civil or criminal process may be taken into account when any College sanction is imposed.

Extensive, organized, serious or repeated violations of this Code are taken into account when determining the appropriate sanction. The State Board of Education adopted the following "Guidelines for Enforcement and Monitoring of Alcohol Rule" on November 18, 1993.

The State Board of Education possesses all the power necessary or convenient to accomplish the objectives and perform the duties prescribed by law. The Vice President for Student Affairs is responsible to the President of the College for enforcement of the Student Code of Conduct and has been designated as the Senior Student Judicial Officer of the College. Primary responsibility for investigating alleged violations, preferring charges, recommending/imposing sanctions and educational remedies, representing the college in hearing and appeals under this Student Code of Conduct and enforcing sanctions and educational remedies is assigned to the Vice President for Student Affairs. These functions may be performed by the Vice President for Student Affairs, or his/her designee.

Classroom Infractions

Individual faculty members or programs may impose their own policies regarding student classroom behavior and academic dishonesty. Such policies are to be readily available to students (e.g., course syllabus, program website or handbook).

Sanctions imposed by a faculty member are limited to grades on individual assignments, course grades, and/ or temporary dismissal from a class (depending on the nature of the infraction). Students accused of academic dishonesty or of another classroom infraction may also be referred by the faculty member to the Vice President for Student Affairs for official disciplinary action.

Faculty members do not have the authority to dismiss a student from a course indefinitely or to dis-enroll a student from a program or major/ minor. Should an incident rise to the level of potential course or program disenrollment, the Division Chair, instructional dean, and the Vice President for Student Affairs will make a final determination.
